

An unidentified US pilot stands up in the cockpit of his plane on the tarmac on Midway Naval Base, Midway Islands, 1942

A group of Curtiss P-40 Warhawks escorted a pair of Consolidated B-24D Liberators on a flight near the Aleutian islands, Alaska, 1944

Untitled

A pair of servicemen and a quartet of schoolboys sit on bridge over the Thames, Henley-on-Thames, England, May 1944

American servicemen drive in jeeps through an unidentified and nearly completely destroyed town, Italy, May 1944

The crew of a B-26 Marauder outside their plane, nicknamed Ginger, 1944

Supreme Allied Commander American General Dwight D. Eisenhower, his deputy, British Chief Air Marshal Arthur Tedder, and the principal commander of Allied ground forces in Europe, British General Bernard L. Montgomery, stand in a US armoured vehicle as they review a tank exercise, Salisbury, England, 1944

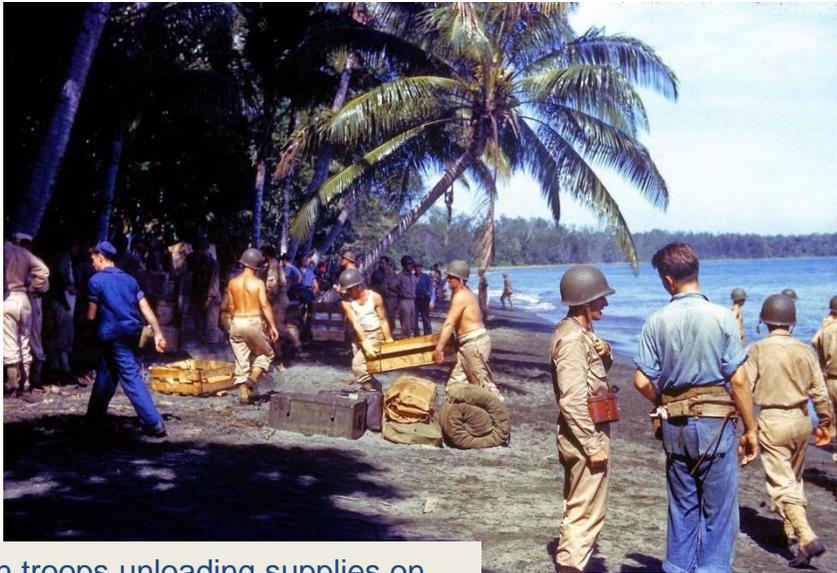

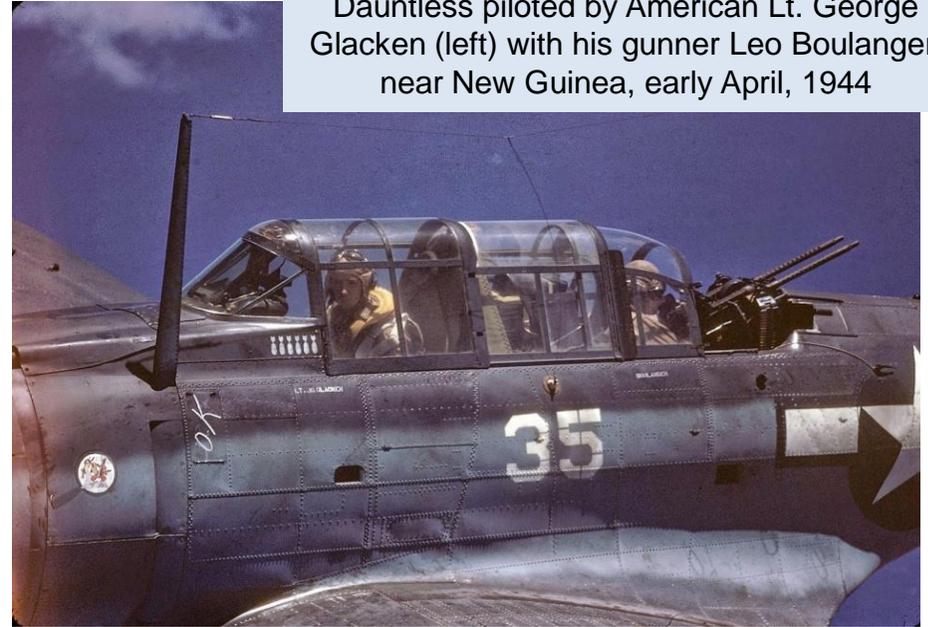

The flight deck crew prepares planes for launch from the USS Lexington (CV-16), en route near New Guinea, early April, 1944

Pair of American servicemen moving a large bomb at an ammunition dump in 1944

Close-up, in-flight view of a Douglas SBD Dauntless piloted by American Lt. George Glacken (left) with his gunner Leo Boulanger, near New Guinea, early April, 1944

American troops unloading supplies on the shores of Guadalcanal Island in 1943

A soldier sleeps in the sun

An unidentified American soldier sits and eats his meal (which includes chicken, mashed potatoes, bread, and pineapple) atop rows of a stockpiled ammunition shells, England, May 1944

American Army trucks parked next to the St. Lucia fountain in 1943

A US Army Corps of Engineers soldier packs 1/2 pound tins of the explosive TNT under one end of an abandoned German tank in preparation for detonation during military operations in the El Guettar Valley, Tunisia, early 1943

British and South African soldiers hold up Nazi trophy flag while combat engineers on bulldozers clear a path through the debris of the bombed out city of Cassino in 1943

An American gun crew in camouflaged emplacement awaiting orders to fire during the desert fighting between German and American forces in the El Guettar Valley in 1943

El Guettar Valley, Tunisia in 1943

Curtiss Wright's chief test pilot H. Lloyd Child (center) writes on a clipboard as he stands with other pilots on a tarmac near the company's manufacturing plant, Buffalo, New York, 1941

Members of the flight and ground crews of a B-17 bomber named 'Honey Chile II' make adjustments to their plane prior to a mission, Polebrook, Northamptonshire, England, fall 1942. The crew and plane originate from the 97th Bombardment Group of the 8th Bomber Command (later 8th Air Force) which was stationed at Polebrook from June until November of 1942

An American soldier sits behind the wheel of a Willys MB jeep, shortly before the United States joined World War II, 1941

Crew removing plane which has made a slight crash landing aboard the aircraft carrier Enterprise CV-6 during the US Navy's Pacific Fleet maneuvers in 1940

Crew aboard the aircraft carrier Enterprise CV-6 listening to instructions during the US Navy's Pacific Fleet maneuvers around Hawaii in 1940

Photographers standing in front of Pappy's Pram, a B-26 Marauder at base, 1943